

ASIAN STUDIES - GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

The Center for Asian Studies is pleased to offer the graduate certificate in Asian studies. It enables students with intellectual or professional interest in Asia who are not focused primarily on Asia within their own degree program to acquire an official credential indicating that they have expertise in some aspect of Asian knowledge or practice.

For more information, visit the Center for Asian Studies' Asian Studies Graduate Certificate (<http://www.colorado.edu/cas/academics/asian-studies-graduate-certificate/>) webpage.

Requirements

Admission Requirements

The certificate is available to all graduate students and post-BA students in the professional schools currently enrolled at CU Boulder, and to non-degree-seeking ACCESS students with a bachelor's degree.

How to Apply

- Write to the Certificate Director (lauren.collins@colorado.edu)
- Upon acceptance, meet with the Certificate Director to approve a plan for coursework and meeting the language requirement
- Upon completion, submit transcript to the Center for Asian Studies for review by the Certificate Director

Course Requirements

Students must complete 12 credit hours of approved graduate courses with a grade of B or higher, 3 credits of which may be in an approved undergraduate course, and 9 credits of which must be at or above the 5000 level.

- Specialization allowed in East Asia, South Asia, Central Asia, Southeast Asia or West Asia/Middle East.
- 2 courses in a single discipline or department.
- 2 courses from outside of that discipline or department.
- Thematic courses that have at least 50% Asia content may also be counted, dependent on approval by the Certificate Director.
- Up to 3 credits may be taken as independent study on an Asia-related topic at the 5000 level or higher with approval from the Certificate Director.
- 9 credits must be at or above the 5000 level.
- Two years' college-level proficiency in an Asian language relevant to specialization (does not count toward the certificate credit hours).

Note: Students may take 3 credits of independent study on an Asia-related topic at the 5000 level or higher with a CAS Faculty Affiliate from outside of their home department; students may not take both a theory class and an independent study for the certificate.

Approved Undergraduate Courses

These courses must be outside the student's home department and can be chosen from the upper-division courses (at 3000 or 4000 level) listed as requirements on the Asian Studies - Bachelor of Arts (BA) (<https://catalog.colorado.edu/undergraduate/colleges-schools/arts-sciences/programs-study/asian-studies/asian-studies-bachelor-arts-ba/#requirementstext>) page under Modern Asian Civilizations and Electives.

Graduate Courses with a Theory Focus

If a student takes one of these courses, they may not also take an Independent Study course for the certificate; the course must be taught by a CAS Faculty Affiliate and the student must complete written assignments/projects on an Asia-related topic.
