

INDONESIAN (INDO)

Courses

INDO 1110 (3) Beginning Indonesian 1- DILS

Provide students with an integrated introductory Basic Indonesian Course. Classes may be offered in person or remotely via Zoom sessions using the Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) method. Classes will also employ "flipped" task-based learning approaches. Reading assignments will include reading, listening and grammar, which students will demonstrate during class sessions, in which they will offer reading summaries, answer questions and practice speaking. Grades will be based on mastery of the assignments and demonstrated proficiency of written and spoken Indonesian, through in-class performance and mid-term and final examinations.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Asia Content

INDO 1120 (3) Beginning Indonesian 2 - DILS

A continuation of Beginning Indonesian 1 (INDO 1110), this is an integrated course. Classes are offered in person or remotely using the Directed Independent Language Study method. Classes will employ "flipped" task-based learning approaches. Coursework includes reading, listening, grammar, answering questions, and speaking practice. Grades are based on demonstrated proficiency of written and spoken Indonesian through in-class performance and examinations.

Requisites: Requires prerequisite course of INDO 1110 (minimum grade C).

Grading Basis: Letter Grade

INDO 2110 (3) Intermediate Indonesian 1- DILS

Building on Beginning Indonesian, students are exposed to active communication in Bahasa Indonesia. Offered in person or remotely using the Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) method, employing "flipped" task-based learning approaches. Assignments develop the four language skills, with vocabulary, grammar and cultural instruction. Students demonstrate progress during class sessions through reading summaries, answering questions and practicing speaking. Grades are based on demonstrated proficiency of written and spoken Indonesian, through in-class performance and midterm and final examinations.

Requisites: Requires prerequisite course of INDO 1120 or 1020 (minimum grade C).

INDO 2120 (3) Intermediate Indonesian 2- DILS

Continuation of Intermediate Indonesian 1. In the second year, students will be exposed to more active communication. The structure, vocabulary and language features and the four language skills are embedded within various topics. Throughout the semester, students will be exposed to Indonesian vocabulary, structure, and culture.

Requisites: Requires prerequisite course of INDO 2110 (minimum grade C).