

CRITICAL THEORY - GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

This certificate offers students a background in philosophical foundations of critical theory. Drawing on disciplines such as philosophy, psychoanalysis, Marxism, literary criticism and sociology, critical theory develops analytical tools for describing and evaluating modern society and cultural production.

Requirements

Procedures

To complete the certificate program a student must:

1. Enroll in the certificate program by emailing the Certificate Director (<https://www.colorado.edu/gsll/contact-us/>) and the Graduate Program Assistant, Sara Bredengerd (gsll_assist@colorado.edu).
2. Once a student has completed the requirements for the certificate, they should complete the Certificate Completion Worksheet (<https://www.colorado.edu/gsll/critical-theory-completion-worksheet/>) and submit it to the Graduate Program Assistant, Sara Bredengerd (gsll_assist@colorado.edu). (gsll@colorado.edu) Note: Worksheet should be submitted the semester the student competes the certificate requirements (or any semester thereafter); certificate is awarded when the student completes their graduate program. Once the director has approved the worksheet, and once student completes their graduate program, the certificate will be added to the student's transcript.

Required Courses and Credits

A total of 12 credit hours are required for completion of the certificate. Of those, 6 credits are earned through a two-course core sequence designed to provide the intellectual history and philosophical foundations for contemporary research directions in critical theory. Students must also take two electives in theory. These courses may be from the list below, and students can also request that the director approve other theory courses.

Students must obtain a grade of B or above in each course taken toward the certificate.
