

WOMEN AND GENDER STUDIES

The Department of Women and Gender Studies offers two graduate programs: a Master of Arts in Gender and Sexuality Studies and a graduate certificate in Women and Gender Studies. Our graduate programs engage students in an interdisciplinary education using a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches across the humanities and the social sciences to examine gender and sexuality through intersectional, decolonial, transnational, and social transformation frameworks. Our faculty's dedication to teaching and mentorship ensures that students receive a transformative education, providing preparation for work in academia and for careers in a wide range of related fields.

Course code for this program is WGST.
