PRESIDENTS LEADERSHIP CLASS

The Presidents Leadership Class (PLC) is a specially designed, top scholar community with both academic and experiential curricula that focus on leadership development through an exploration and honing of our five domains of leadership development (http://www.colorado.edu/plc/plc-advantage/how-we-develop-leadership). Skills are developed in interdisciplinary, academic and experiential environments and through exposure to the key industries of Colorado. PLC students are from any school or college participate in the Presidents Leadership Class curriculum as part of their regular course work.

The Presidents Leadership Class is a program of CU Boulder and has a Board of Advocates representing Colorado business, educational, nonprofit and government communities.

Admission and Enrollment

Admission to the Presidents Leadership Class is considered one of the highest honors awarded to incoming University of Colorado Boulder students. Most Presidents Leadership Class students are admitted prior to the beginning of their first year at CU Boulder; however, a maximum of 10 spots are reserved for qualified rising sophomores in a second point of entry. Selection criteria include academic excellence, demonstrated commitment outside of self, leadership potential, uniqueness of contribution to the incoming cohort, humility and grit. Each year, 50 first-year students are enrolled, comprising both Colorado residents and nonresidents. Instructions on how to apply to PLC are available on the PLC website (http://www.colorado.edu/plc). The application is part of the University of Boulder Scholarships Application through the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarship Services. The application is due by February 15th. To access the application, visit the Apply Now (http://www.colorado.edu/plc/apply-now) webpage.

Only students who are accepted into the Presidents Leadership Class are eligible to enroll in PLC courses (PRLC) with few exceptions for PRLC 2820 and 3810. Students receive Arts and Sciences core credit in Ideals and Values for PRLC 1810; and core credit in Contemporary Societies for PRLC 1820.

Academic Program

PLC provides students with unique academic courses, purposeful experiential education and real-life experiences that:

- Support academic and professional excellence
- Grow critical thinking and analytical capabilities
- Develop extraordinary creativity
- Hone abilities of thoughtful implementation
- Cultivate moral reasoning, and instill an ethic of service and character

PLC provides opportunities by uniting the support of the university, local and statewide leaders. The academic curriculum is supplemented by a substantial experiential learning curriculum and professional development opportunities.

For more information on the PLC Curriculum Strategy and the research behind it, visit the Presidents Leadership Class (http://www.colorado.edu/plc) website.
