ART PRACTICES - BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA)

The BA in art practices allows students to explore their interests and refine their skills in ceramics, Integrated Media Arts Practices/IMAP (photography, digital media, video, integrated arts), painting and drawing, printmaking, and sculpture and post-studio practice. Students gain a broad understanding of the field of contemporary art and experience in contemporary art practices while pursuing a liberal arts degree at the university.

Portfolio submission is not required to declare art practices as a major or minor.

Required Courses

Students must complete the general requirements of the College of Arts and Sciences and the required courses listed below. Students must complete 39 credits in the major. See the Art Practices - Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) (catalog.colorado.edu/undergraduate/colleges-schools/artsciences/programs-study/art-art-history/art-practices-bachelor-fine-arts-bfa) page for information about admission to the BFA program.

Recommended Four-Year Plan of Study

Consult the Four-Year Guarantee Requirements for information on eligibility. The concept of "adequate progress" as it is used here only refers to maintaining eligibility for the four-year guarantee; it is not a requirement for the major. To maintain adequate progress toward a BA in studio arts, students should meet the following requirements:

- Declare major by the beginning of the second semester.
- Complete ARTS 1010 and ARTS 1020, two level-1 studio classes and lower-division art history courses by the end of the third semester.
- Complete 30–36 credits in the major by the end of the sixth semester.

Students must also complete at least 12 upper-division ARTS/ARTH courses on the Boulder campus after starting the program.

Through the required coursework for the major, students will fulfill all 12 credits of the Arts & Humanities area of the Gen Ed Distribution Requirement.
