ASIAN STUDIES - MINOR

The minor in Asian studies allows students to engage in interdisciplinary study of Asia, adding an important global focus to their primary studies. While the minor does not grant credit for foreign language, students are encouraged to study abroad, and are able to gain a strong foundation in knowledge of the Asian world through a vast array of fascinating coursework. The Asian studies academic advisor and faculty advisor strongly encourage thematic or regional concentration, and are available for help in customizing the minor.

For any questions, please email Dr. Colleen Berry (colleen.berry@colorado.edu) or call (303) 735-5224. Visit the Asian Studies Minor (http://www.colorado.edu/cas/academics/asian-studies-minor) webpage for additional information.

Traditional Asian Civilizations

Students take two of the following introductory courses, choosing one from each of two different civilizations (East Asia, South Asia, West Asia); 6 credit hours minimum, lower division. See the requirements on the Asian Studies - Bachelor of Arts (BA) (catalog.colorado.edu/undergraduate/colleges-schools/arts-sciences/programs-study/asian-studies-asian-studies-bachelor-arts-ba/#requirementstext) page and scroll down to the Traditional Asian Civilizations courses.

Upper-Division Electives

Students take at least 3 courses (9 credits, upper division). Upper-division credits are required for the electives, since the minor as a whole requires 12 upper-division credits. See the requirements on the Asian Studies - Bachelor of Arts (BA) (catalog.colorado.edu/undergraduate/colleges-schools/arts-sciences/programs-study/asian-studies-asian-studies-bachelor-arts-ba/#requirementstext) page and scroll down to the Electives courses for possible choices.

After meeting the Modern Asian Civilizations requirement, additional upper-division courses from that category may also be be taken as electives. ASIA 4830 can also be taken as an elective.
