ETHNIC STUDIES

The field of ethnic studies was born of, and is dedicated to, the struggles for social justice for all people. The Department of Ethnic Studies at CU Boulder draws on this tradition of engaged scholarship to examine how race and the interrelated categories of ethnicity, gender, class and sexuality impact the lives of people in the United States and around the globe.

Our interdisciplinary department offers an undergraduate major and minor in ethnic studies. Faculty members engage in a wide variety of research on the cultures, histories, epistemologies, and experiences in African American, Asian American, Chicana and Chicano, and Native American/indigenous peoples in the U.S. and beyond. Their research and teaching address these topics through critical, transnational, queer, decolonial and comparative perspectives.

Course code for this program is ETHN.

Study Abroad

The Department of Ethnic Studies encourages students to participate in the study abroad programs offered through the Office of International Education. These programs give students a deeper understanding of culture and attitudes of people of color in other parts of the world and their carryover into the United States. CU-Boulder partners with several study abroad organizations that offer summer, semester and full year programs in many locations around the world, most notably in Africa, Asia and Latin America. Programs of special interest include study abroad in Australia, Bolivia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Ghana, Japan, Mexico, Morocco, Peru, South Africa, Spain and Taiwan.

For additional information, contact the Office of International Education. Students should always consult with their academic advisor prior to choosing their study abroad program.
