FRENCH AND ITALIAN

The Department of French and Italian provides instruction in the languages, literatures, cinema, and cultures of France, Italy, and other areas where these languages are spoken.

We offer a wide selection of undergraduate courses (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/courses-0), covering topics ranging from the Middle Ages to Italian-American culture and the Francophone literature of Africa, the Caribbean and the Middle East.

The department offers:

- Majors and Minors in French (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/undergraduate/french) and Italian (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/undergraduate/italian)
- Joint BA/MA (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/undergraduate/french/bama) in French

Study abroad opportunities in French (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/study-abroad) and Italian (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/study-abroad) to help students complete their international experience

Course codes for these programs are FREN and ITAL.

Study Abroad

CU Boulder offers French study abroad programs in Annecy, Paris, Rennes, Strasbourg and Toulouse, France. In addition, students may study in Quebec, Brussels, Geneva and in the Francophone African nations of Cameroon, Madagascar, Mali and Senegal. CU Boulder offers Italian study abroad programs in Ferrara, Florence and Perugia, Italy. Students may obtain course-credit equivalences for work done while abroad. For further information about study abroad programs, students may visit departmental advisors or the Education Abroad office. Credit hours earned on this program may be applied to the Italian major. Students may also take a summer film class in Rome and/or Paris (in alternate years). This class is taught in English. The Ayer Romance Language Scholarship is available for French and Italian majors who plan to study abroad. The Il Circolo Italiano is also available for Italian majors who will be studying abroad. Both of these scholarships are awarded by the Department of French and Italian.
