FRENCH - MINOR

We offer undergraduate courses in French language, literature and culture.

The language courses make use of CU's ALTEC language lab (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/altec-facilities) to provide maximum flexibility in language learning, with rich audio-visual content. Courses cover spoken and written language, composition, conversation, and Business French.

Culture courses focus on current events, differences between the US and France, and the culture of the larger Francophone world.

Literature courses cover topics ranging from the Middle Ages to the twenty-first-century novel. We also offer study abroad programs (http://www.colorado.edu/frenchitalian/study-abroad) in a number of French-speaking locations.

To declare a French minor, please go to www.colorado.edu/advising (http://www.colorado.edu/advising).

Requirements

Declaration of a minor is open to any student enrolled at CU Boulder, regardless of college or school.

All courses for minor credit hours must be taken for a grade. The only exception to this rule is course credit, which although taken for a grade, is recorded pass/fail on the student's transcript (this includes transfer credit from accredited universities and courses taken on CU study abroad programs).

Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in all courses counted for the minor.

Required Courses and Semester Credit Hours

A total of 18 upper-division credit hours is required for the minor. All courses counted for the minor must be numbered 3000 or above. Courses taught by the department in English, do not, in general, apply to the minor, with the exception of FREN 3200.

Prerequisite for admission to courses for the minor is completion of Level IV French, second-year college French (FREN 2120) or equivalent.

A maximum of 6 credit hours upper-division credit may be transferred from other universities or non-CU Boulder study abroad programs. Courses taken on CU Boulder study abroad programs are considered to be CU credit hours, and not subject to this limitation.
