

GERMAN STUDIES - MINOR

The minor in German studies is an interdisciplinary program focusing on study of German culture, including contemporary German society, current political institutions and dynamics in Germany within the broader European framework, and the history of German literature, art, politics and philosophy.

Declaration of a minor in German studies is open to any student enrolled at CU Boulder, regardless of college or school.

Requirements

Students must complete 20 credit hours as directed below, with grades of C- or above. The GPA for all coursework taken in the minor department must be equal to 2.00 (C) or higher. Students may not apply more than 9 hours of transfer credit (including 6 upper-division credits) toward the minor. Transfer courses must be approved by the department.
