DNCE 1000 (2) Beginning Contemporary Dance Technique
Introduces students to the dynamic capabilities of the body as an articulate means of expression. Presents basic concepts and skills from contemporary dance forms that may include Afro-modern, floor work, inversion, classical modern and improvisation. Classwork develops efficient alignment, strength, flexibility, coordination, rhythm, dynamics and spatial awareness. No experience necessary.
Repeatable: Repeatable for up to 4.00 total credit hours.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique

DNCE 1012 (2) Dance Production
Provides the dancer with an introduction to the types of performance venues available today, and their technical systems and equipment. It will also establish an awareness of how technical theatre design arts may be utilized by a choreographer.

Requisites: Restricted to Dance (DNCE or DBFA, excludes DNCE-MIN) majors only.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Production

DNCE 1013 (2) Dance Improvisation
An opportunity for students to develop skills of dance improvisation through the exploration of structured movement problems. Students study selected contemporary dance artists whose work stresses improvisation in performance and/or as a training vehicle. Department consent required for dance minors.

Requisites: Restricted to Dance (DNCE or DBFA, excludes DNCE-MIN) majors only.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Creative Process

DNCE 1017 (3) Dance in Popular Culture and Media
Explores and contextualizes contemporary popular culture and dance. Introduces methods of critical analysis that reveal the rich heritage hidden within and around the dances students commonly encounter at the club, on the street, on television, on the big screen and elsewhere in everyday life. Through watching, reading, and discussion, students discover new meaning in their lived cultural experience.

Additional Information: Arts Sci Core Curr: Literature and the Arts

Departmental Category: Dance and Cultural Studies

DNCE 1020 (1) Beginning Contemporary Dance with Experience
Invites students to deepen their somatic awareness, efficient athleticism, and creative voice through the medium of contemporary dance. Continues the investigation of contemporary dance forms that may include Afro-modern, floor work, inversions, classical modern, and improvisation. Classwork will deepen students' alignment, strength, flexibility, coordination, rhythm, dynamics and spatial awareness.

Repeatable: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.

Recommended: Prerequisite DNCE 1000 or previous dance experience.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique

DNCE 1027 (3) Dance in Cultural Perception and Expression
Explores how the practice of dance can reflect, disrupt, subvert, support, and reinforce cultural expectations, norms and practices. Introduces international and domestic dance traditions and provides context for an interdisciplinary examination. Comparative readings from sociology, anthropology, gender studies, history, post-colonial studies, and political science provide a foundation to understand how cultural identities are negotiated and represented through movement.

Additional Information: GT Pathways: GT-AH1 - Arts Hum: Arts Expression

Departmental Category: Dance and Cultural Studies

Departmental Category: Asia Content

DNCE 1091 (1) Modern 1
Introduces basic skills of modern dance. In-class technique work increases muscle strength, flexibility, and coordination. Offered summers only at Perry-Mansfield Performing Arts Camp.

Repeatable: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Major Technique

DNCE 1100 (1) Beginning Ballet
Introduces beginning students to fundamental aspects of classical ballet technique; no previous experience required. Basic principles of alignment, rotation, and movement quality are introduced as the building blocks for success in advanced material. Foundational movements and ballet vocabulary are learned and refined. Students work toward mastery of simple combinations and rhythmic patterns.

Repeatable: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique

DNCE 1120 (1) Beginning Ballet with Experience
Relies on a demonstrated comprehension of kinesthetic and conceptual principles mastered at the beginning level. New movements from the classical ballet vocabulary are introduced with continued emphasis on alignment, rotation, and movement quality. Ballet sequences are longer and more complex.

Repeatable: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.

Recommended: Prerequisite DNCE 1100 or previous ballet experience.

Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique
DNCE 1190 (1) Ballet 1
Beginning ballet covering the basic vocabulary of classical ballet technique. Offered summers only at Perry-Mansfield Performing Arts Camp.
Repeatability: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.
Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique

DNCE 1200 (1) Beginning Jazz Dance
Introduces various styles of movement unique to jazz dance including improvisation, isolations, and African-influenced polyrhythms. Working within a range of dynamic performance styles, students will learn fundamental dance skills and jazz vocabulary, from which more advanced skills can be developed. Designed for students who will have no dance experience.
Repeatability: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.
Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique

Additional Information:

DNCE 1220 (1) Beginning Jazz with Experience
Digs deeper into syncopated movement style of the jazz vernacular by continuing the embodied investigation of the Africanist influence on the form. Demands a rigorous awareness of efficient alignment while engaging with complex movement and challenging rhythmic structures.
Repeatability: Repeatable for up to 2.00 total credit hours.
Recommended: Prerequisite DNCE 1200 or previous dance experience.
Additional Information: Departmental Category: Nonmajor Technique
