

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA - CERTIFICATE

This undergraduate certificate program is designed exclusively for undergraduate students enrolled in the College of Media, Communication and Information (CMCI), and in the International Affairs major (IAFS) in the College of Arts and Sciences. This certificate allows students majoring in international affairs to explore careers in international reporting, advertising and entertainment, while CMCI majors will acquire the context and perspective necessary to work in global and international jobs.

Requirements

The certificate requires 18 to 19 credit hours (depending on the lower-division courses chosen), 15 of which must be upper-division courses.

Students majoring in international affairs are eligible to apply for admission to the certificate program if they have completed 30 credit hours (at least 6 of which must be in their major) with a GPA of 2.75 or better.

For more information, visit the International Media Certificate page of the CMCI website (<https://www.colorado.edu/cmci/academics/journalism/international-media-cert/>).
