

SPORTS AND MEDIA - MINOR

The mission of the minor in sports media is to broaden students' understanding of the role of sports in society by enhancing the quality of public communication on sports, especially the quality of sports journalism and the delivery of sporting events. The goal of the minor is to take the student's interest in sports and provide perspective so that they can tell a meaningful story of the sport either through journalistic reporting, media relations or entertainment.

Additional information on the minor may be found on CMCI's Sports Media Minor (<https://www.colorado.edu/cmci/sportsmediaminor>) webpage.
