INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS - MINOR

With the increasing importance of world issues to the United States, employment opportunities in government, international organizations and business continue to expand. Today there is an urgent need for college graduates with a background in international affairs. To meet this need, the University of Colorado Boulder offers a minor in international affairs, giving students in various programs an interdisciplinary perspective on the world today.

Requirements

Required Courses and Credits

Complete the lower-division, upper-division and capstone requirements below for a total of 19 credits.

- All coursework applied to the minor must be completed with a grade of C- or better (no pass/fail work may be applied).
- The grade point average for all minor degree coursework must equal 2.00 (a grade of C) or higher.
- Students may apply no more than 9 credit hours of transfer work towards the minor.
